

LENTEN TALKS AT ST IGNATIUS

You are warmly welcomed to St Ignatius Church Hall (corner of William St and Queen St, Norwood) this Lenten season for the following talks. Donations at the door welcome.

Wednesday 28th February, 2024 at 7pm

Julian Nguyen and Fr Ramesh Richards SJ will discuss working with young people in social outreach and overseas programs, and the challenges for young Australians in a school and post-school context.

Julian Nguyen is the Coordinator of the Catholic Office for Youth and Young Adults in the Archdiocese of Adelaide, and Fr Ramesh is the Rector of the Jesuit Cardoner network in Sydney.

Wednesday 6th March, 2024 at 7pm

Fr Mark Raper SJ will discuss the work of Jesuit Mission and the challenges it faces.

Fr Mark worked as Director of Jesuit Refugee Service in Bangkok and Rome, as President of the Jesuit Conference of East Asia, and as Superior of Jesuit Mission in Myanmar.

Wednesday 13th March, 2024 at 7pm

Dr Debra Snoddy will discuss the practice of crucifixion in the first century, its role in Roman law and order, and seeing Jesus as the perfect lamb of sacrifice.

Dr Debra has studied in Ireland and Belgium and holds a PhD in Theology as well as the ecclesiastical degree of Licentiate in Sacred Theology. She currently lectures in Christian and Hebrew Scripture at the Catholic Institute of Sydney where her students include seminarians, religious, and laypeople.

For more information please contact the Parish Office on 8332 0600