

LEGAL LANDSCAPE

Insights from our Old Ignatian Lawyers

Meet the Panel

ANTONY BAUZE - MC (Class of 1985)

Senior Secondary Teacher, Saint Ignatius' College Adelaide

Antony Bauze is a distinguished alumnus of Saint Ignatius' College, graduating in 1985 as Vice-Captain of the College and holding leadership roles as Captain of Athletics and Squash. He excelled academically, winning the Headmaster's Essay Prize twice and the Chinese Language Prize in Year 12.

Antony earned a Bachelor of Arts in 1990 and a Bachelor of Laws in 1992 from the University of Adelaide, followed by a Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice in 1993. After graduating, he served as a Duty Solicitor at the Adelaide Magistrates Court and Yatala Labour Prison.

In 1996, Antony completed a Graduate Diploma of Education. He returned to the law in 1997 before transitioning to teaching, joining Saint Ignatius' College in 1999, specialising in Legal Studies, Business Innovation, and Commerce.

SEAN KEENIHAN - PANEL MEMBER (Class of 1988)

Chair of the Board, Norman Waterhouse Lawyers

Sean has a wealth of experience, gained from over 25 years of legal practice, both internationally and in South Australia.

He is the current chair of StudyAdelaide – South Australia's peak body promoting Adelaide as Australia's premier learning city.

Sean is also a national board director and state president of the Australia China Business Council – Australia's peak bilateral business investment and trade organisation. As well, he is the chair of Norman Waterhouse's business consulting arm, NW Alliance.

Previously, Sean was the chair of the South Australian Tourism Commission for four years, up until July 2019, presiding over the most significant period of growth in the visitor economy in its history. Sean is also Chair of the Board of Saint Ignatius' College Adelaide.

ERICA PANAGAKOS - PANEL MEMBER (Class of 2006)

Director, Clark Panagakos Family Law

Erica was admitted to practice in 2011, having graduated from the University of Adelaide with honours in 2010.

She started her career in general practice at a long-standing Adelaide law firm, where she gained a solid grounding in a variety of legal matters.

Erica now practices predominantly in family law, working hard to encourage sensible dispute resolution. She is a collaboratively trained practitioner and is also an accredited mediator.

Erica is fluent in Italian and attributes her strong work ethic and can-do attitude to the values instilled in her by her immigrant grandparents.

ALYSIA PANAGAKOS - PANEL MEMBER (Class of 2011)

Senior Associate, Clark Panagakos Family Law

Alysia graduated from the University of Adelaide in December 2016 with a double degree in law (with honours) and arts (majoring in Italian, with a minor in French). She was admitted to legal practice in 2017.

While studying full-time, Alysia worked as a law clerk for four years at an established Adelaide law firm, where she supported solicitors and barristers, assisted clients, and garnered experience in a diversity of legal matters.

In her spare time, Alysia enjoys playing soccer. She has been competing since the age of eight and currently plays in the Women's National Premier League as a midfielder for the Adelaide University Soccer Club.

NICHOLAS MUNDAY - PANEL MEMBER (Class of 2014)

Associate, Norman Waterhouse Lawyers

Nicholas was admitted as a barrister and solicitor to the Supreme Court of South Australia in 2020. He completed his Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Science (Ecology and Evolutionary Biology) at the University of Adelaide in 2019.

Nicholas joined Norman Waterhouse Lawyers as a clerk within the environment and planning team in 2020.

Prior to this, Nicholas gained experience doing pro bono work for unrepresented individuals within the Adelaide Magistrates Court and undertook work experience at the Department for Environment and Water.

In 2024, Nicholas was recognised as a 'rising star' in the Environment and Planning Law sector by Doyles Guide.

