

In a recent address to Russia, Ukraine President Volodymyr Zelensky asked:

*“Do you still think that we are ‘one nation?’
Do you still think that you can scare us, break us, make us make concessions?*

*You really did not understand anything? Don’t understand who we are?
What are we for? What are we talking about?*

*Read my lips: Without gas or without you? Without you.
Without light or without you? Without you.
Without water or without you? Without you.
Without food or without you? Without you.”*

Cold, hunger, darkness and thirst are not as scary and deadly for us as your ‘friendship and brotherhood’.

*But history will put everything in its place.
And we will be with gas, light, water, and food ... and WITHOUT you!”*
